Dedication

Dedicated to Mr. Leon Robbins,
Outstanding Professor

In his passing, not only have we lost a dynamic teacher and outstanding leader, but, moreover, a portion of Park College itself. No other person associated with this institution greater exemplified the strength of character and wisdom of life that can be gained through Christian faith and labor.

As long as these objectives prevail, his fondest dreams will remain alive and growing.

In

Memoriam

In Memorial to Dr. Walter Frederick Sanders,
Dean Emeritus of Park College

Dr. Sanders was Dean of Park College from 1920 until 1946. During these years, he was responsible for the development of Park into one of the country's outstanding liberal arts colleges. We, his beneficiaries, are truly grateful for the legacy he has left us.

Office of the President

Your Park will live in your mind through this yearbook. Its pages of text and photographs, in some dim future, may bring to life many a dormant memory. From it, too, you will see your College in a new perspective — an enriched sense of respect and affection.

Office of the Dean

The broad areas of the Dean's Office's responsibility and concern are three: the curriculum, the faculty, and the student body. Thanks to the high standards of this office and the superior insight and tact with which its affairs are handled, these three areas are woven together to form a better Park College.

Office of the Business Manager

H. Milton Mohler, Business Manager of the College and Board of Trustees.

Under the leadership of Mr. Mohler and Miss Vulliamy, the Business Office keeps the financial wheels of the college running smoothly, as well as supervising the mail room, and doing many other miscellaneous jobs.

Office of Admissions and Registrar

Harley Wyatt, Jr.: Director of Admissions and Registrar

Carol Brenner: Assistant to the Director of Admissions

Under Mr. Wyatt's direction the Registrar's Office has undergone a complete revision. By using new forms for registering and for other reports the office has become a central clearing house of all data and information called for by different individuals and organizations.

William Honeycutt, Albert Dusing and Robert Seamans remain on the staff as full-time counselors and the Reverend James M. DeFriend as a part-time counselor. The full-time counselors are remaining in their assigned areas and have increased the number of applications for the next school year.

Alyce R. Hartwig: Assistant to the Registrar

Charles J.. Edwards, Director of Alumni and Public Relations, Charlotte S. Young, Assistant Director of Public Affairs.

Office of Alumni and Public Relations

The Alumni and Public Affairs office keeps in touch with faculty, alumni, students, parents, and friends, by means of letters, brochures, announcements, the Park College Record, and other publications, in order to present a true picture of Park College to all.

Mary Youngblood, Secretary to the Director of Alumni and Public Relations.

Luther E. Sharpe, Director of Development.

The search for financial support is absolutely essential to all the College's plans, and with the appointment of Dr. Sharpe as director of financial development, Park took a major step in reformulating and up-dating its programs of fund-raising.

The laboratory and its uses.

Inside the booth.

The first semester of 1961 marked the opening of the new Park College English Language Institute. Director of the Institute is Dr. George Barber, with Ralph H. Jackson and Dr. Wesley C. Panunzio making up the rest of the staff.

Located directly behind Nickel Dormitory, the laboratory itself had forty booths. Each individual booth has one set of earphones and a microphone. The student places the earphones on his head and then selects the volume of the recording being played. By means of the microphone, the student can answer any question the professor may ask him. If the student is doing a simple "listen and repeat" exercise, he speaks into the microphone. Thus, the professor can hear the individual student and ask specific questions without interrupting the rest of the class.

This laboratory has been arranged so that four different tape recordings can be played at the same time, thus allowing different students to use different tapes at one time. The laboratory also has ten booths for the recording of students' voices, so each student may have a copy of the lesson to study at his dormitory.

This year Park College has twenty-five full time Institute students and one off-campus student. These students came from nine different countries: two from Iraq, four from Iran, nine from China, two from Panama, one from Korea, one from Mexico, one from Syria, three from Japan, and one from Venezuela.

Campus Church

Under the leadership of Gordon Edwards, Gary Bruce, and two hardworking church boards, the Campus Church instilled Park with a religious spirit which was revealed in several new ways. Two of these were a Sunday morning coffee hour, which provided an opportunity to visit with guest speakers, and a Sunday evening discussion group. As usual, WUS was another big activity of the church.

Hawley Hall

HAWLEY HALL
"Home" of the freshman women.

Herr House

A hall steeped in tradition, the serene structure of Herr House houses the upperclass women of Park College. However, within these hallowed halls beat a heart of pure adventure, exemplified by the theft in the still of the early morning of the Dearing mascot, the greeting of the men of Woodward with shouts of approval, the showing of equal abilities at "twisting" to the men of Copley, the calculating and captivating "vamping" at the House Party aptly titled "The Inferno" and the exuberance shown at the numerous other parties during the year. "Mom" Fleming resides in these sometimes chaotic surroundings with patience which is repaid in the graciousness and poise with which "her girls" greet their guests at Herr House Open House and other occasions calling for it.

Stephens Cottage

It was so nice to be back this fall — back in the Cottage after six years on Hawley's fourth floor! Life in Stephens has been made up of many things . . . scrubbing, painting, planting, sweeping, waxing, polishing, ironing, hammering, and stamping down floor boards . . . hanging our prized "Stephens Cottage" sign . . . having it stolen, of course . . . moving into Nickel — suit cases, pillows, and all! . . . "trapped" in Nickel lounge . . . parties for Chestnut and Nickel . . . our "Thank You" to Chesnut for our washer and our cottage . . .

COPLEY OFFICERS — Phil Bellini, President; Ron Knight, Vice-President; Marvin Laffoon, Secretary; Scott Thomas, Treasurer; and Mom Riester.

Copley-Thaw Dormitory

A loud shout from one end of the hall, a record player booming, a radio blaring, and wrestling in the halls were some of the commonplace Copley-Thaw activities. This past year, eighty freshman boys lived in "harmony" at this hallowed hall. Each boy helped clean and decorate the dorm for such activities as the Open House, the House Party, the Roaring Twenties Dance, and Saturday night smokers. Then, although it is commonly known that Copley "men" are not sentimental, a few tears were shed as boys left in May to return home to summer jobs and summer school.

Chestnut Dormitory

The Men-of-the-Famous (or Infamous)-Crest feel that the 1961-62 school term has witnessed a successful series of activities, ranging from the "wild orgy" held at the Niles Home for Children, to an atmosphere which gave moment for nostalgia and sentimentality — the Christmas party in the once-manly dormitory now called Stephens. Again our house party exceeded all expectations, and was even more impressive than last year's. This holds true as well for our somewhat more unofficial farewell fest held in honor of our graduating camarades de dortoir, and traditionally taking place at . . . (information classified.)

The academic picture has not been marred by any of this — we have worked, as we have "hacked" with rare exception, and now we can look back on a year full of fond memories.

The Men of Chesnut

Dearing Hall

Dearing Hall, Park's new dormitory, named after an unseen friend of the college, stands where Chesnut stood in the old years — Dearing-on-the-Hill. Upperclassmen, living here, follow the high footbridge to the campus where girls from the original Chesnut once walked. Dr. Peter Hilty is the Head Resident, and the officers are: Vin Pronger, President; Lynn Minert, Vice-President; John Ramirez, Treasurer; and John Hilsop and John Laderer, Social Chairmen. The Dearing men have a glee club, directed by Roy Magers, have held parties for each of the girls' dorms on campus, and have lighted their fireplace with a flame carried from Hawley. Their forty-five foot high red-light Christmas tree was a Yuletide symbol to the college and town. What we remember from Dearing's first year are the snowy nights before a fireplace, with a quiet T.V. show or a record and long talks.

Soccer

The 1961 soccer season proved to be one of the best in the history of Park College. Under the excellent leadership of Coach Ara Zakaryan and Captain Mel Blades, the team was able to win five games, while losing only two and tying one.

Outstanding players for Park were Paul Thackaberry, a senior, who led the scoring with a total of 10 goals; and John Clarke, a senior goalie, who had a total of 85 saves.

This year also marked the first time Park has won its own tournament. Park defeated Wentworth Military Academy and Emporia State to win first place in the Park College Invitational Soccer Tournament. Tabor also participated in this tournament.

VISITOR

The 1961-62 Pirates under new coach Ed Nelson produced the first winning season in thirty-nine years and the greatest number of victories on record for a Park team.

Although stricken with the usual ails of lack of height and losses at the semester, the squad was blessed with fifteen players who persevered in practice, and with enthusiastic fans that braved bitter losses and weather to encourage their athletes.

The team was lead in scoring by junior John Michaels and senior Cliff Porter. George Horneker, sophomore, lead the team in rebounds. In addition junior Mel Blades, sophomores Roger Streeter, Peter Bine, Ron Green, freshman Ed Staniec and managers Gary Sorrell and Joel Givertz received varsity letters.
